

The Shotright privacy policy stipulates that your personal information will be kept private and confidential.

Information collected by Shotright is done with your knowledge and is stored in a secure database.

Information collected by Shotright will be used in order to conduct business with you.

Your information will not be shared with or released to anybody outside of Shotright and our courier The Courier Guy and Payment DPO PayGate partners unless Shotright is compelled to do so by law or with your written consent.